

The image features three handbags from the brand Rufel. The top bag is a structured, trapezoidal shape with a black leather body and zebra-print fabric on the sides. It has a top handle and a metal clasp with a circular logo. The middle bag is a smaller, more rounded style with a zebra-print body and black leather trim. The bottom bag is another structured style, similar to the top one, with a black leather body and zebra-print sides. The Rufel brand name is visible on the bottom bag. The background is dark and moody, with the brand name 'Rufel' overlaid in a large, white, serif font.
